

The Faculty Senate views the _____ which reports on WSU news, current issues, activities, academics and athletics, in addition to offering a forum for discussion, reviews and commentary, as an invaluable resource of information for Wichita State University community including students, faculty, staff, alumni and the wider Wichita community. In addition, the _____ represents a unique opportunity for applied learning experience for students, which directly aligns with WSU's Strategic Plan.

: The Faculty Senate has concerns that such a budget cut will be perceived by WSU community and national press as intimidation of