

Once the department's annual report undergoes more in-depth evaluation by the board. Offering the correct recommendations by the AC is professionally from the organization's systems and the resources of proper reporting concerning the number of graduating seniors and the recreation of the report.

- the number of cheaters
- the number of grading errors and their respective

The corrected data were copied into the spreadsheet of department faculty meeting in the spring semester and discussed. The faculty meeting information was then forwarded to the LA Denial office.