

CPT/OPT Factsheet for Employers

Wichita State understands employers may be unsure about hiring international students due to the complexity of federal immigration lawsand regulations. In this document, we hope toaddress concerns employers might have about hiring international studentsGetting permission for international students to work in the U.S. is not as difficult as many employers think. Most international students are in the U.S. on F student visas and are eligible toinggaept employment under certa.4 pgiblication includ ternship related to their academic major. We also ask te tonation site. I deorft satudy. The student and the orization, so there is no additional effort on the gible programs, many WSU graduates will qualify OPT) as long as:

Their degree was in a STEM area (Science, Technology, Engineerinty!ath); They have a fultime (20+ hours per week) paid job or job offer from an employer who is a registered user of the EVerify programand; Their employer is willing to complete the Form-983, Training Plan for STEM OPT Studeness,d agree to all terms and conditions

Frequently Asked Questions

Isn't it illegal to hire international students because they do not have a green card? No. Federal regulations permit the employment of international students on f status within certain limits. This status allows students to work in jobs related to their major field of study hrough post-completion Optional Practical Trainingupon completion of their degree program.

What about Taxes?

Unless exempt due to taxtreaty, F-1 status holders earning income while working on practical training are

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY