Eight Named to All Regional Team

The American Collegiate Rowing Association (ACRA) named 3 male rowers, 2 female rowers, 1 woman coxswain and 2 coaches to its Plain Regions Team from Wichita State Rowing.

The Plains Region is comprised of 27 teams, including among others: Kansas, Kansas State, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Colorado and Texas. Each team may nominate up to 5 student-athletes from the men's and 5 from the women's team. This is the most awarded from Wichita State since the ACRA inception in 2008.

Men's Team: Christian Kindel, '13, Wichita, KS; Malcolm Johnson '12, Alexandria, VA; Patrick Harms '14 and Coach Calvin Cupp. This is the second year in a row that both Kindel and Johnson received awards.

Women's Team: Marlo Griffith '14, Wichita, KS; Sydney Blanton '13, Wichita, KS; Emily Russell '13, Wichita, KS and Coach Tori Breithaupt.

From this group will be selected the All American teams and Coach of the Year. The ACRA will also honor a freshman boat and Academic All Americans. Selections will be announced by June 2, 2012.
