

Recognized Student Organizations have:

Opportunities to apply and use available resources in Student Involvement (SI), including mailboxes, storage, event equipment, workroom and computer workstations.

Access to leadership development opportunities for individual and organizational development including access to leadership resources, such as books and program guides.

The ability to reserve university facilities for meetings and events for free within business hours. Additional costs may be added under special circumstances.

Access to post announcements on university bulletin boards and appropriate campus structures.

Specialized training to develop a better understanding of organizational processes, university policies and procedures.

Authorization to request funds from the Student Government Association (SGA) in accordance with established procedures and guidelines.

Access to volunteer opportunities, event planning resources, supplies for retreats and presentations.

Authorization to utilize the university departments in the management of financial operations; example: Office of Research and Technology Transfer, The Foundation and Financial Operations.

Printing allocation in Student Involvement of $5.00 per month; $.15 for color prints and $.05 for black and white.

Ability to have posters, brochures and other printed pieces designed (limit 2 items/events per semester per group) by the